

Robert W. Jenkins, FSIP

Robert Jenkins is a former banker, fund manager and regulator. He is currently a teacher, board director and public policy advocate. Mr. Jenkins was a senior executive at CitiGroup where he ran the bank's trading and sales activities in Dubai, Bahrain, Switzerland and Japan. He followed these 16 years on the "sell side" with a further 18 on the "buy side." He headed the asset management activities of Credit Suisse in Japan and served as CEO and then Chair of F&C Asset Management. Prior to his appointment at the Bank of England, he was CEO and Partner of Combinatorics Capital, a NY-based hedge fund.

Mr. Jenkins Chaired the Investment Management Association of the UK, the trade body for the investment industry. He co-Chaired the Chancellor's task force on the "Future of the UK investment Industry" and served on the UK's Takeover Panel. From 2011-13 he served as a founding member of the Bank of England's Financial Policy Committee. He is currently Adjunct Professor of Finance at London Business School, Senior Advisor to CVC Capital Partners, a Governor of the CFA Institute, and a non-executive Director of the Aberdeen All Asia Investment Trust. He attended university in the US, France and Italy.

In September 2013, Robert Jenkins was named a Senior Fellow at Better Markets. Better Markets is the Washington, D.C. – based nonprofit organization that advocates for the public interest in the financial markets.